

SENATE DENIES LIGHT ON JURY FIXING CHARGES

McCarren Leads Fight Against Bill Asking
Governor for Inquiry.

ALBANY, March 21.—The Senate today defeated Senator Marks' motion to take from the table his resolution calling on Gov. Higgins to direct an investigation into the charges of jury fixing in railway cases in New York courts. The vote was 40 yeas, 21 nays. Those who voted in the affirmative were Senators Brackett, Drescher, Hawkins, Keenan, Marks, Raines. Senator McCarren spoke against the resolution claiming it was a local matter to be looked after by New York's District Attorney and there was no sound reason why the legislature should meddle in local affairs.

FIFTY COPS MADE APPEAL TOO LATE.

Corporation Counsel Fights Restoration of Some of the Men
Retired by McAdoo.

When the Court of Appeals decided that Commissioner McAdoo had not complied with all the provisions of the Police law when he retired, a whole platoon of policemen on pensions, ranging from patrolmen up through the various ranks to inspectors, Albert O. Smith and Dr. H. H. Smith, on the report of the police surgeons that they were "unfit for full duty by reason of permanent physical disability," and must be reinstated, it was stated that this applied to the whole seventy men.

But the Corporation Counsel took a different view, and to-day an Assistant Corporation Counsel moved before Justice Clinch, in the Supreme Court, to dismiss an alternative writ of mandamus obtained by Sgt. Oliver Tims to compel Commissioner Bingham to restore him to his place and full salary on the ground that Tims had waited too long before he sued.

It came out that Sgt. Tims and fifty others of the men retired by Commissioner McAdoo had waited beyond the four months' limit within which a man may appeal from an order "dismissing" him from the department, and his was made a test case.

In behalf of Tims and the others Jacob Rouse contended that these men were never "discharged" and that their cases do not fall under this Statute of limitations. The Corporation Counsel contended that the four months limit applied to both removals and retirements, and that only Inspector Smith and Dr. H. H. Smith, Capt. Shire, Hickman and Pooty and the twenty sergeants who took the matter to the Appellate Court of Appeals were entitled to restoration.

BOY HURT IN CAR CRASH.

Trolley Hurdled Green from Wagon and Injuries May Be Fatal.

Joseph Green, twelve years old, of No. 707 East One Hundred and Forty-eighth street, was probably fatally hurt to-day by a trolley car at the corner of One Hundred and Fiftieth street and Melrose avenue. He is employed by Haffner's grocery, and was sitting at the rear of a delivery wagon driven by Charles Grossman. As the wagon crossed Melrose avenue the horse slipped and a car struck the wagon. The boy and several crates of eggs and groceries were thrown to the street. An ambulance surgeon from Lebanon Hospital found the boy suffering from internal injuries and severe scalp wounds.

TO BE UP TO DATE YOU MUST BE OLD-FASHIONED.

Arnold Constable's Great Display of the Season's Fashionable Greater Than Previous Annual Show.

There are some surprises in store for the smart dresser this spring. Arnold, Constable & Co.'s display of the season's fashions, Paisian gowns, imported materials, new wraps, comprising as it does every correct style, brings out the fact that to be up to date you must be old-fashioned. Rather startling, but true.

Think of it, the smart new wraps are just like the old-fashioned capes our grandmothers used to wear. The new shoulder capes are made of Louiseine, lace and lace work over taffeta. One pretty model fits in at the waist in the back and is finished in front with two long tabs. Another old-fashioned "new" cape is shorter, has the run of lace and white at the neck and the long tabs in front.

An exquisite line of evening wraps, Empire style, with Renaissance lace yokes, charmingly lace-in fact, all kinds of laces are joys to the feminine eye. It is in the display of imported French gowns that the smart woman is happy. Here is something entirely new. It is a wonderful Empire gown, Paquin model, of white tulle, with coloring of blue and sage green. A sort of girdle effect of sage green tulle, and a short jacket effect of the same silk is covered with blue silk embroidery. Lace sleeves and yoke complete the startling new costume, with its clinging circular skirt. The Empire style is shown in another exquisite gown of white lace over pompadour silk. The lining is fitted, the Empire effect being given from the drapery.

One costume which causes many bursts of astonishment is of white broadcloth, coat and skirt. The coat, which has the appearance of buttoning up both back and skirt, is a real effect. It is a real cretione vest and cuffs. The wonderful display of new material, alluring to the feminine shopper as the display of French gowns. Marquisette, in pompadour and plain effects, chignon pompadour, moire, pompadour crepe, Charmeuse, which is used instead of the heavier satin for wedding gowns; silk voiles and Rajahs and the brand new calcium are shown in every shade and style.

In the new materials another novelty is shown in the heavy borders in Persian or Greek design. The calcium chignon cloths and the less expensive goods show the striking border effect. Even the laces are made with borders. The new line of spring styles this year surpasses even the past annual show at Arnold Constable & Co.'s.

No Extra Charge for It.
The department for the world may be left at Arnold Constable & Co.'s until 9 P. M.

BURGLARS ARE BUSY OVER IN BROOKLYN

Loot Two Stores, and at Least
One Job, Police Declare, Was Work of Professionals.

Two burglaries in Brooklyn kept detectives busy to-day. In a Williamsburg jeweller's the thieves got away with $1,000 worth of trinkets, and in a South Brooklyn store they secured $700 worth of goods.

Joseph Silverblatt keeps a jewelry store at No. 88 Broadway. The thieves made their way through the hallway of the house in which the store is located into the cellar. They then climbed up through a trap door into the store and leisurely helped themselves. They took 400 rings and 20 pieces of other jewelry. It was a clean job, the police say, and was the work of professionals.

The discovery of the other burglary came about in a strange way. Edward Schroeder, of No. 5421 Third avenue, was coming home at about 3 o'clock this morning, when he found a heavy bag in Fifty-sixth street, between Second and Third avenues.

At the corner he met two policemen, and gave them the bag. On opening it the policemen found 300 pipes.

Later the policemen learned that thieves had entered the store of Thomas Bergman, at Fifty-ninth street and Third avenue, and besides the pipes had stolen 300 pocket-knives and thirty fountain pens. They had cut a hole through the house wall.

ONLY SON'S HARD TIME WITH SISTERS.

Teased Him, He Broke Vases and Now Mother Wants Him Arrested.

Magistrate Moss took occasion to severely rebuke Mrs. Rosalie Keller, of No. 557 St. Marks place, in the Yorkville Police Court to-day.

The woman had applied for a warrant for her son Emmanuel. Questioning brought out the fact that the son had last night broken two of his mother's vases. He works in the Fidelity and Casualty Company, and gives his mother nearly all of the salary he receives. There are six daughters in the family and the boy broke the vases while trying to escape their teasing. The family is well-to-do.

Mrs. Keller once before caused the arrest of her son, who was then discharged. On that occasion it was shown that the arrest was because of jealousy on the part of the sisters. There is a cat in the family, and the only person it will come to is the boy. It is in terror of all the rest.

"What sort of a mother are you?" asked the Magistrate after hearing the story. "You don't look as though you had the least love in your heart for your son. There are seven of you women against this boy. You are un-natural and cruel. I will give you a summons for your son, for I want to have a look at him. I am in sympathy with him, not with you."

MAN SAVED BY A CIRCUS GIANT

Henry Meyer Found It Easy to Wade in Six Feet of Water.

A circus giant saved Ernest Waack, of No. 121 Bloomfield street, Hoboken, to-day, from drowning.

The man jumped into the Hudson River at Seventh street. He wanted to die.

Waack, who is said to have had some family troubles, went to the pier and plunged in. Henry Meyer, of No. 203 Bloomfield street, who is twenty-two years old and who stands 7 feet 4 inches high, saw the man jump, as did also William Hook, of the same address. It was low tide and there was only about six feet of water at the pier. Meyer dropped into the water and grabbed hold of Waack, keeping his head above the surface until Hook helped them both out. Waack was taken into a shanty, where his clothing was dried and stimulants given to him. He was afterward sent to the county jail for ten days.

GOULDS IN SUIT WITH OPERA HOUSE LESSEE.

They Claim $1,400, While Springer
Says He Has Paid $3,170
Too Much.

George J. Gould, Edwin Gould, Helen M. Gould and Howard Gould were the plaintiffs in the trial to-day of a suit against John H. Springer, lessee of the Grand Opera House, before Justice Blanchard and a jury in the Supreme Court. The suit is for $1,400 worth of electricity at eight cents per kilowatt hour.

The lessee of the Opera House insists that he only agreed to pay the Goulds just what it cost them to obtain the electricity. This, he asserts, was not more than five cents per kilowatt hour. He alleges that he has already paid $3,170 more than he should have done.

The trial was reduced to a comparison of figures, which Justice Blanchard said the jury must decide upon.

BOMB IN MAIL OF TAILORING FIRM

Sent to J. Eisner & Co., Whose
1,200 Employees Are on Strike.

What is considered a dangerous infernal machine filled with powder, cotton, matches and calcium carbide, was received at J. Eisner & Co.'s big clothing factory, Sheffield and Belmont avenues, Brownsville, Brooklyn, to-day. Twelve hundred hands have been on a strike there for the past three weeks.

It was opened by Arnold Aaron, Vice-President of the concern, and he believes that he had a narrow escape from severe injury.

The machine was afterward taken by the police and is now in the possession of the Bureau of Combustibles. The box itself was tied with what appeared to be a string, but which was a fuse that led through a small hole on the inside.

Mr. Aaron at once plunged the thing into a pail of water, and there it stayed for twenty minutes. When opened it contained a tin box filled with powder, the matches arranged so as to ignite by rubbing against sandpaper as the box was opened.

EPIDEMIC OF MEASLES VISITS JERSEY CITY

An epidemic of measles has broken out in Jersey City, and to-day Dr. Robertson, of the contagious diseases department of the Board of Health, declared quarantine of St. Joseph's Home, an orphan asylum at York and Washington streets, where fifty-four cases have already developed.

Dr. Robertson is of the opinion that to-morrow there will be at least one hundred of the children down with the disease. The increase of measles in Jersey City has been remarkable. There were only twenty cases in February, but already this month there are 170 cases reported. The sick children at St. Joseph's Home were kept in a secluded wing of the building to prevent contagion, but somehow the disease spread. The home, which contains 80 children, is managed by the Sister of Mercy, and many members of the order arrived to-day to act as nurses.

Don't Poison Baby.

Forty years ago almost every mother thought her child must have PAREGORIC or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and a FEW DROPS TOO MANY will produce the SLEEP FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labelling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrup," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without your or your physician know of what it is composed. CASTORIA DOES NOT CONTAIN NARCOTICS, if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

SHOT DEAD AS HE LEFT HOME OF SWEETHEART.

Victim Had Written to Parents
That His Life Had Been Threatened and He Feared Murder.

READING, Pa., March 21.—Elmer Prutzman, aged twenty-one years, was shot and killed last midnight as he left the home of his sweetheart, Mabel Treat. Prutzman had scarcely closed the door leading to the street when a pistol shot was heard, and a few minutes later his body was found on the sidewalk.

It was at first supposed that the young man had committed suicide, but the authorities believe he was murdered.

Prutzman wrote to his parents in Hamburg, this county, yesterday that his life had been threatened by a person who he believed was carrying a pistol and that he was afraid to venture out at night. The police are investigating.

SUNDAY'S WORLD

THIS is one of the most interesting of the Sunday World's selection of TEN of the "THOUSAND DOLLAR APIECE" Gibson Pictures. It shows champion Jim Jeffries stalking through the streets escorted by a crowd of boys and men, every one of whom is gazing up at the hero with open-mouthed admiration. It is a scene which has often actually occurred, but no other artist has ever caught the idea so happily.

This picture, which is reproduced by the Sunday World on a separate sheet of heavy art paper, size 10x15 inches, is one of the drawings made for Collier's Weekly under the following contract:

P. F. COLLIER & SON;

Dear Sirs—I hereby accept your offer of $100,000 for one hundred double-page cartoons, to be delivered to you during the next four years. And I agree to draw only for "Collier's Weekly" and "Life."

Sincerely yours,
O. D. GIBSON.
